KENTUCKY GOLF TOURNAMENT TO BE HELD HERE

Will Bring Several Hundred Here In June

TELEGRAM TODAY

F. P. Seales in Louisville In Interest Matter—Big Plans for Entertainment

Middlesboro was awarded the Kentucky state golf tournament for the year, this afternoon, according to information received at the Country Club from A. G. Spaulding Co. at Louisville to Professional Quackenbush.

F. P. Seales, president of the Middlesboro Country Club, has been in Louisville during the past few days in the interest of bringing the tournament here. The matter was decided at a meeting of the executive committee of the state association at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The tournament will bring from 200 to 400 golfers here from all parts of Kentucky and other parts of the country, the president of the local club says. In view of the fact that all of them will be prominent business men from their sections, a splendid advertisement for Middlesboro will result.

The tournament will be held in June, the exact date having not been decided. The golf course here is in splendid condition for a state meet, as the map recently made shows. It is the finest course in the state, with the exception of the Louisville course, golfers say.

Mr. Seales, who is backed by all members of the club has worked untiringly to bring the tournament to Middlesboro. It is due no little credit for the manner in which he has managed it. The Kiwanis club which endorsed the matter and which extended invitations to the golfers, and many local business and professional men which have boosted it are also to be commended.

FOREIGN WAR VETERANS WILL ORGANIZE TONIGHT

An organization meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held at the K. P. hall on Nineteenth street at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday night, according to Capt. A. D. DeBusk who is taking the initiative in making the preliminary arrangements.

The ten men who have signed as charter members are expected to be present as well as any other eligibles in Middlesboro and vicinity. This includes any men who have been in active service with the army, navy or marine corps in foreign wars.

NO LUXURY TAX ON CHEAPER RADIO

Exemption In New Law on All Sets Wholesaling Under Fifty Dollars

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 5.—All radio sets selling for less than fifty dollars wholesale were exempted from the ten per cent tax by the Senate Finance Committee today in winding up consideration of the revenue bill.

LOCAL BOYS TO OLDER BOYS' DISTRICT CONFERENCE

Two local boys have already been given passes for the Older Boys' Conference of this district which will be held at Harlan April 11-12-13, according to Mrs. Ray Moss, principal of the Middlesboro high school.

This district conference will be open to all boys of high school age and others are expected to take advantage of the opportunity to attend the three days' meeting at Harlan. Their expenses will be paid, with the exception of railroad fare and registration fees. It is understood that they will be entertained by the Harlan Kiwanis club. Harold Tucker and Wheeler Shumate are boys to whom passes have been issued.

DAILY NEWS TO INSURE READERS AGAINST TRAFFIC

Low Cost Travel Accident Policy for Subscribers

FOR WHOLE FAMILY

North American Accident Co. Insures Every Member of Household from 15 to 70

As announced yesterday in full page advertisement on page seven, the Daily News has secured the cooperation of The North American Accident Insurance Co. of Chicago, Ill., in the introduction of their Reader Service Policy for the benefit of Middlesboro Daily News subscribers and members of their families. The News has secured exclusive insurance rights for the Reader Service policy of this company in Bell, Lee, Harlan, Whitley and Knox counties, Kentucky; Claiborne, Campbell counties, Tennessee and in Lee, Scott, Tazewell, Buchanan, Dickinson and Wise counties, Virginia.

High Grade Traffic Insurance
The circulation manager of the News, R. J. Bailey, has been appointed agent for the company and has full authority to receive applications and issue insurance for the company under the supervision of the Insurance Department of the State of Kentucky. This is strictly a high-grade Traffic Accident Insurance. It has been used successfully and in a highly satisfactory manner by leading newspapers in the United States. The Philadelphia Record, the New York Globe, Columbus (Ohio) Dispatch, Duluth News-Tribune, Montgomery (Ala.) Advertiser, Providence (R. I.) News and other leading newspapers have sold this insurance to hundreds of thousands of satisfied subscribers and members of their families.

Company is Reliable
The News' management has first-hand knowledge of the North American Accident Insurance Co. The company is thoroughly reliable, pays all claims under the policy and further has authorized the Middlesboro Daily News to assume temporary relief pending the full payment of the claim against the company. Which means just this. If the husband and father is insured with one of the News Reader Policies and should be taken away by a traffic accident under the policy coverage, the Middlesboro Daily News will extend temporary relief to the family of the deceased. The settlement of the policy is made through the News and when full payment of the claim against the company is made, the amount advanced is deducted from the amount of the claim against the company.

Family May Insure
Every member of the family between the ages of fifteen and seventy years of age may secure a $1,000 Reader Service Policy on the subscription of the head or some other member of the family. These policies are accumulative. For instance in the case of death by accident, the coverage is $1,000. This coverage increases each year at the rate of $100 per year until the fifth year when the policy is worth $1,500. This policy is renewable each year with the subscription of the Middlesboro Daily News until the insured reaches the age of seventy years. Every member of the family may renew on the above terms—the only requirement is that some member of the family be a regular paid-to-date subscriber of the Daily News.

Indemnity Clause
The indemnity clause in the Policy (Part III) is alone worth the price of a year's subscription to the News and the cost of the Policy. The payment of $10 per week in case of injury under part one, and $7.50 per week in instances falling under Part II of the Policy, gives high grade protection in cases of injury where death is not the result of the accident.

Any News carrier will bring your application and payment to the News office. He will receive credit for the turned in subscription and the policy will be mailed for given to you at the News office.

Following the publication of the advertisement in last evening's News, applications commenced to come in this morning. The only requirement for city subscribers is that they be paid up to date on their News subscription which payment plus seventy-five cents for each policy issued, will bring them the insurance.

MYSTERY LEGEND B. Y. O. B. MAY MEAN VARIETY THINGS

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—The mysterious legend B. Y. O. B. inscribed on invitations to a dinner in New York Monday night under the auspices of former army officers stirred up a commotion in prohibition circles here. Anti-saloon league interpreted the inscription as "Bring Your Own Booze," and Wayne Wheeler, counsel for the league, issued a statement calling on Congress to oust army officers who violate liquor laws. Secretary Weeks, however, viewed the cabalistic letters as a joke and meaning perhaps, "Bring Your Own Buddies."

KENTUCKY WOMAN HELD FOR MURDER

Former Ravenscroft Girl Slays Admirer In Chicago—Pleads Self Defense

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Apr. 5.—Mrs. Beulah Annan, ordered held to the grand jury for murder by the coroner's jury for killing Harry Kalstedt, her admirer, was in the county jail today with three other women two of them convicted of murder one of whom is sentenced to hang and the third is facing trial at jail. Mrs. Annan declared she beat Kalstedt to the revolver. Mrs. Annan who in childhood days lived near Owensboro, Ky., where she was first married to Perry Stevens, printed, declared she and Kalstedt quarreled because information had come to her of wrong in his past life. Both she declared rushed for the revolver which she snatched first. She was divorced from Stevens in Louisville and later married Albert Annan and they came here.

DECLARES SHOW WON'T DAMAGE ATHLETIC PARK

"Our show will not damage the athletic park—after it leaves you would never know it had been there," declared Al Hicks, advance agent of the Cooper Bros. tent show, having reference to the protest made by the board of education yesterday.

He claims that there are no heavy wagons or trucks with the show, that they will not use the ball diamond but will pitch their tent on the outskirts of the field and that he would guarantee the city that there would be no damages.

He says that he has rented the park for one day from the city, the owner, and that he does not intend to take up the matter with the board of education.

Later in the day, Mr. Hicks took up the matter with city commissioners and John Chesney, secretary of the educational board, and they report that there will be no objection to an exhibition on the ball park if no damage is done by the show.

MERRITT'S CAR STRUCK MITCHELL'S IN COLLISION

The Daily News' account yesterday of the automobile collision of Icterus Mitchell and B. P. Merritt was misleading in that it said Mitchell's car struck Merritt's. According to a large number of witnesses who saw the accident, Merritt's car, coming on the wrong side of the street, struck Mitchell's car full in the side, damaging both cars considerably.

SLAYER OF LYNCH CHIEF BEING TRIED

Court Extended For Case—Crowds Parking Room Give Up Guns Before Entering

HARLAN, Apr. 5.—Leonard Griffen, colored, the slayer of Captain Goss of Lynch, was brought from his cell yesterday into the court room to face a charge of murder. He was met by the gaze of a packed court room filled with people from all over the county, as he was led by his attorneys to his chair.

Leonard Griffen dressed in overalls and a brown jacket is about five feet six inches tall and weighs about 145 pounds. He was plainly very nervous and sullen, sitting in his chair, almost afraid to move. His attorneys insisted on a change of venue, and postponement of the trial until the next term of court, but the court refused both motions, and preparations were made for the picking of the jury. The court further announced that the court will be extended for a week so that this case can be tried immediately.

Persons coming up the court house steps were met by a large white sign which informed them that they would not be allowed to enter if they carried a gun. In order to enforce this rule, several men were stationed at the head of the steps, and searched everybody coming up to the court room.

KENTUCKY BONDS TAXABLE IN STATE

Daughterly Says All Bonds Owned Here, Even Issued in Other States, Taxed Here

By Associated Press.

FRANKFORT, Apr. 5.—Attorney General Daugherty today ruled all bonds owned by persons living in Kentucky and issued by other states and municipalities of other states are taxable in Kentucky.

"STEVE WHITE" HERE VISITING; HASN'T MILLIONS YET

"Steve White," reputed heir to a million, is a regular visitor to Middlesboro now. He has been here at his boarding place for several days, though expressed his intention of returning to the Bell county poor-farm today.

Now that the public curiosity incidental to his sudden riches has somewhat subsided, he has settled back into a calm and peaceful existence at the poor house, the monotony of which is broken only by his visits here. His name is gradually disappearing from the big headlines in newspapers and apparently he is no better off than before two continents were stirred over his meteoric rise to fame and fortune.

Undoubtedly there are obstacles in the way of his immediately placing the million in his pocket. His lawyers has given no hint of any progress made in collecting the fortune though there seems to be no doubt that "Steve" is due it.

ARREST A RUNNING DISORDERLY HOUSE ON LOTHURRY

Paul Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Smith, proprietors of the DeLuxe cafe and the rooms over the establishment, were arrested last night by police officers and charged with running a disorderly house. Three other men and two women were arrested and will be held for witnesses. Trial was postponed this morning on account of the absence of defendant's lawyer. It is set for 10 o'clock Monday morning.

FIND SKELETON IN SECRET ROOM OLD RESIDENCE

By Associated Press.

LOUISVILLE, Apr. 5.—Workmen demolishing an old residence near the business district today found parts of a human skeleton in what apparently was a secret room. Collectors ranged from murder, denoted by the condition of the skull, to probability that bones were the property of an old-time physician.

L. AND N. MEN GET INCREASE

Trainmen and Conductor Allowed 6 per Cent More After Conference

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Apr. 5.—Negotiations between representatives of the Louisville and Nashville railroad and trainmen's and conductors' organizations has resulted in an agreement on a six per cent increase. M. C. Carey, vice-president of the order of railway conductors announced today.

REV. J. H. BRANSON KILLED IN SLATE FALL AT DAVISBURG

The Rev. J. H. Branson was instantly killed by falling slate at the Davisburg mine at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The deceased who has lived in this vicinity for the past twenty-five years. He was well-known around the coal mining sections where, as a Baptist minister, he had conducted many meetings. He began working at the Log Mountain mine at Davisburg as a coal loader last November and worked there until his death yesterday afternoon.

He has a large number of friends in Middlesboro an vicinity who will regret his death. Besides his wife, he is survived by two stepsons. After the accident the body was taken to the Carl Newman Undertaking establishment. Funeral arrangements had not been announced at noon today.

NEW RECTOR OF ST. MARY'S FIRST SERVICE TOMORROW

The Rev. Arthur R. Price, new rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, will hold his first services at that church tomorrow. The Rev. Price comes from Greenville, Tenn., to Middlesboro. St. Mary's had been without a rector for more than a year.

New Benches At City Hall

Three new benches have been made this week and placed in the public corridors at the city hall for the convenience of persons waiting there as witnesses or for other business. This will, to a degree, discourage the practice of visitors standing near the wall and resting the soles of their muddy shoes against it.

Final Check of Income Taxes

J. M. Laswell, deputy collector Internal Revenue department, has been in town for the past few days making a final check on the income tax returns and doing other work for the department. He reports that practically all persons required to file returns this year have already done so.

EXCURSION FROM LYNCH MAY RUN HERE NEXT WEEK

Merchants Discuss Big Advertising Stunt Yesterday

FINISH PROGRAM ALL QUIET AT CAMP

Buy In Middlesboro Week to Start Tuesday—Many Special Demonstrations Are Planned

"Buy In Middlesboro" will begin with the meeting at the Manting theatre at 2:30 Tuesday afternoon at which time speakers will emphasize the importance of home buying and announce the schedule for the remainder of the week.

T. R. Hill will be one of the speakers and members of the Woman's club will assist in the program. Merchants are requested to arrange their programs regarding demonstrations Monday and give the information to S. M. Reams, president of the association, so that he may have the schedule made up and announced during the meeting Tuesday afternoon. Circulars containing the schedule will also be sent out through the country.

A feature of the campaign which will be of interest to all visitors is the special food demonstration in the form of free lunches. The Lone Mountain Milling company will furnish flour which the Haynes bakery will make into bread. Armour and company will furnish ham. From these sandwiches will be made and served and advertising matter issued showing who furnished each item. The Jellico Grocery company will furnish a cup of Cumberland Club coffee to each of the visitors. The Jellico-Grocery company will have a demonstration at Lee's drug store. This will take place during the last three days of the campaign. The plans for serving the food has not been decided, this matter being left to a committee composed of A. C. Shelburne, A. D. Campbell and W. C. Stahl.

Wholesale dealers of the city are giving whole-hearted co-operation and support to the campaign and promise to furnish any merchandise that may be of use during the campaign. A number of the merchants have announced special bargains for the week and nearly all the others will offer some particular inducement. All windows will be appropriately trimmed for the occasion and some windows not now being used in establishments along Cumberland avenue may be pressed into service.

Col. N. P. Wise, manager of the local Singer Sewing Machine agency, suggested that the Merchants' Association promote a special excursion trip from Lynch and all towns between Middlesboro and that town to bring in hundreds of visitors for the campaign. This could be done by hiring the excursion train for a day and fixing the fare at a very small rate for the passengers, he explained.

The suggestion was favorably received by the members of the association, though Mr. Reams stated there would not be time enough now to work up such a trip for the coming week. He suggested that the plan be tried out at a later date. He appointed a committee to investigate the plan and perhaps fix a date for the experiment. The committee is composed of Col. Wise, W. D. Motch and P. Moorman.

The meeting yesterday afternoon was one of the best attended and most enthusiastic ever held by the organization. About twenty-five men were present, this including a number of wholesale men.

The public meeting Tuesday afternoon will be one of interest to all Middlesboro and the merchants are hoping that it will have a large attendance.

ASK VEHICLES TO STAY OFF FERN LAKE ROAD

Grading of Fern Lake road which has been done principally by residents of the section has been completed. The place is unfit for travel during wet weather, however, and the citizens of that vicinity and the city officials request persons with vehicles not to use it until the surface has become dry. Present use of the road will greatly injure it and may cause the vehicle to become stuck in the mud.

STATE TROOPS ORDERED TO BELL COUNTY

Follows Miners' Clash at Straight Creek Thursday

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 5.—The Associated Press was reliably informed today if troops were called to the scene of the mine trouble near Pineville no official announcement that they had been sent would be made until they were on the ground. It is regarded as likely that if troops are called out by Governor Fields they will consist of a machine gun company and proceed under cover to the scene. Adjutant General Keyhoe said today the situation was "very tense."

State troops which have been ordered to the scene of the miners' clash at Straight Creek where one man was killed and another wounded Thursday evening are expected to arrive there today or tomorrow, according to reports from Sheriff Martin Green's office this afternoon. Quiet prevails around the camp of the Liberty Coal and Coke company. Mining operations were suspended following the killing and plans for reopening the mines have not been announced.

Sheriff Green who has been investigating the killing since Thursday evening has not yet found any definite clues indicating the identity of the slayers.

The remains of George Lucas, who was killed in the fusillade of bullets which greeted the miners as they came from their work, were shipped to Norton, Va. on Number 23 for burial last night. Ed Dishman, who was shot through the knee, is improving at the Wilson hospital.

The famous LaFollette blood-hound was put on the trail of the slayers soon after the killing but they failed to pick up the trail. One report from Pineville is to the effect that Governor Fields did not answer the call for state troops, though reports from the office of the firm and from the sheriff's office indicate the soldiers are expected.

Local coal operators say that the conference between operators and miners requested by Governor Fields to adjust the differences between them has not yet taken place, so far as they know.

BIG LOOT OF WETS IN WASHINGTON

Dry Agents, Stirred by Criticism, Grow Active—Hundred Persons Taken

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 5.—Stirred by recent charges of prohibition enforcement laxity here, prohibition agents and police swooped down on the city's known wet spots today and by noon had one hundred persons and six hundred gallons of doubtful liquor in their net.

MANY HEAR SPLENDID GLEE CLUB ORCHESTRA RECITAL

A large audience heard the high school glee club and orchestra recital at the Central School auditorium last night and pronounced it one of the best and most interesting entertainments of the season. Great credit is due Miss Lillian Seay, musical director, for the remarkable way in which she has organized these boys and girls and brought out their talent.

The orchestra numbers last night were especially splendid, their closing number, "Marche Militaire," having been played as many variations of far more maturity and training. The string quartet was perhaps the most beautiful number. The girls and boys' glee club sang several very splendid songs, the boys making special appeal.

A Thought

We know that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully.—1 Tim. 1:8.

Laws can discover sin, but not remove.—Milton.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

In appointing Harlan Fiske Stone of New York to be Attorney General of the United States, President Coolidge lifts that office out of the odium that had recently tainted it and restores once more public confidence in the administration of the American Department of Justice.

Mr. Stone is admittedly a lawyer not only of eminent attainments but of the highest personal and professional character. Like the President, he comes of stock that has made this nation great. Like the President, also, he has fought life's battles against odds and won success in the conflict of competition.

He began life as a country boy, trained to the plow, educated by dint of high ambition and nerve to make the fight by self-reliance. Fortified by rugged health and a robust mind, Mr. Stone early took his rank at the New York bar. That rank, whether as practitioner, teacher or writer of law, he has consistently maintained. Among real lawyers of the country few members of the profession are more favorably known than he. To the discharge of duties now imposed upon him he brings admirable equipment.

Unless all trustworthy evidence be misleading, the newly appointed attorney general is "the right sort." The country has no sound reason to doubt that under his administration, the Department of Justice will regain and maintain the prestige it deserves to hold in the enlightened judgment of the country.

Certainly Mr. Stone's professional qualifications are all that could be desired. If these are combined with the personal qualities of vigor and resolute courage necessary to a rehabilitation of the Department of Justice in the condition in which it is left by his predecessor his appointment will prove a happy one.—Courier-Journal.

A Y. W. C. A. FOR MIDDLESBORO

The many readers here of the Knoxville papers have been interested recently in the drive for a Y. W. C. A. which is going on in Knoxville. Of course, an organization or building on the scale of the one Knoxville is seeking would be out of the question, but wouldn't it be a splendid thing, considering the large number of working girls here, to have some place they could go for rest and recreation?

Middlesboro has a live Woman's club which every year sets out to accomplish a definite program. Wouldn't such a thing as this be splendid to work into the program which that club plans for next year?

There are so many girls here who work all day, or most of the day, yet at noon or spare hours during the day, they have no place but the streets to go. Could the women of Middlesboro do a more worthy work than furnishing such a place for them?

The matter of financing should be very small, comparatively speaking. A small house could be rented and furnished by the club members. Tag days, sales, benefits of some kind at the sort might be necessary to take out funds, but it would be a great amount and the sum could be easily raised in this manner. The members of the club could take their turns acting as hostesses, as they do in the city Y. W. C. A. or some of the girls could fill this place.

More than all this, it would give the women of the town a chance to be a real help to these girls in the factories and elsewhere. By close association they could find out their troubles and temptations and give them help in many ways. It would be a wonderfully constructive program and one that could be carried out with only a little effort.

FELLOWSHIP OF PRAYER

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.
SATURDAY
The Moral Quitter

Read Mt. 19:13-22. Text: 19:22. He went away.

"The hope of it (life) is simply the desire to keep on working with a multitude of others for the common good. Anyone who did not resent the idea that his chance to work for the common good must end with death would be a moral quitter. He would show that he did not care enough about the unselfish, honest, friendly life to wish to keep on living it."

Meditation: To live an unselfish life in a world where there are so many things which can gratify not only material longings but even the finer tastes of men is indeed a difficult accomplishment. "But to every man there openeth a high way and a low, and every man decideth the way his soul shall go." In all the world what sadder sight than that of a man who, knowing the higher, turns to the lower way of living?

Personal Question: Is there anything in what I have or am that looms larger than the Will of God?

Prayer: Almighty God, our Father, we pray for those whose eyes are turned away from thee. May the circumstances of their lives and the wooing of thy spirit call them again to thyself. May we learn ways of spiritual fellowship with all thy children, that thy grace may prevail in all our hearts, through Christ. Amen.

FINANCING ROADS BY GASOLINE TAX

Tourist business through South-eastern Kentucky is going to be greater this spring and fall and summer than the coal business. Some are of the belief that the tourist business will surpass all other industries of the section in net return for the capital invested. And don't be mislead. They have made a definite concrete investment.

With the information that 3,000,000 automobiles were registered in Florida last winter, 60 per cent of which came from the mid-west, funneling through Cincinnati, but going east because of Kentucky road conditions, southeastern Kentucky set out to attract a share of those tourists. A 14-mile detour was the stumbling block, with the regular road under construction. Corbin, Barboursville, Pineville and Middlesboro set forth to make that detour passable. Every community from Corbin to Cincinnati realized that until the 14 mile stretch between Corbin and Barboursville was widened, tourists could not travel the Dixie highway, which has been re-named the Friendship route, No. "A." The four Cumberland towns made an agreement with all the garages in the towns to charge a one-cent gallon tax on gasoline sold. The plan immediately became popular with local persons, and tourists. Towns to the north, eager to get travel moving through eastern Kentucky, joined in the collection of the special road fund. A committee composed of one banker from each of the four towns was made responsible for the expenditure of the maintenance fund. The aid of the state highway department was obtained to the extent of furnishing equipment and recommending experienced road men. Other bad gaps were repaired through the same fund and tourists are expected to flock through that section this year, leaving their trail of gold.

And how much does this amount to? The average tourist car carries four passengers, spending an average of $7.50 each per day of 125 miles; $30 a day per car. Three million cars in Florida, going and coming making the equivalent of 6,000,000 cars. Suppose only 10 per cent of them travel through Eastern Kentucky, although 60 per cent of them funnel through Cincinnati. Eastern Kentucky would get $600,000, at $20 a day or $15,000,000 a day, the value of the tourist crop.

Southwest Virginia should share in that business. Every business man in that county should see first that the road to Jenkins via Pond Gap is put in condition for travel. And that gap

COMBINATIONS

THERE are many combinations that the world knows mighty well. What I mean is, things we mention in duet. And they come in close relations; just for instance, let us tell of a line of combinations we can get. Ham and eggs are surely listed in the places where you eat and you'll also find the famous pork and beans. Many years have they existed and stood forth as quite a treat and have caused you to bring money from your jeans.

Then there's liver with its bacon that we all have heard about. And the well-known dish of beef and cabbage, too. Where's the man who hasn't taken cakes and sausage? There's no doubt that men-bread and milk, have oft appealed to you.

Steak and onions are a winner that is always bound to please, and another that's sure to hit you right is the spare ribs and sauerkraut, or the bite of pie and cheese, that you eat before you go to bed at night.

Now there may be dishes that I've left out of this list which are prominent at morning, noon or night. But, with these, my little wish is that the aim in mind's not missed and those mentioned give you all an appetite.

once repaired, the wildcat road should be made passable, so that the through traffic, once here from the north, can find its way south.

Time is past for a community to hope to prosper without every opportunity for visitors to get in and out of the community in comfort. It is all right to be prosperous among ourselves, trading dollars from one pocket to another. Infinitely better to get visitors into town and let them help us to prosper. The coal industry will be quiet this summer, which doubles the necessity for revenue from other sources.—Courier-Journal

Editorial Comment

America and Americans

The Senate of the United States will soon have to decide whether it will pass an immigration law for the benefit of America and Americans, or for the benefit of Roumania, Italy, Poland, Japan and points east and south.

Roumania objects to the legislation desired by Americans because it will decrease remittances by Roumanians to that country. Italy objects because she feels that she needs a refuge for her surplus population. Japan objects because she feels that her feelings are in danger of being hurt. Poland, it is reported, objects not only to immigration but to the "Americanization" of such Poles as are here and is said to have asked the Vatican to intervene.

Indian and North Dakota, Texas, and Michigan do not object. Neither do 41 other states of the American union. They are tired of paying the bills for immigrant insanity, pauperism, crime and lawlessness. In former days they were rather proud that America was an "Asylum for the oppressed." Now they know that unless immigration is stopped or radically changed, America can justly be called an asylum for idiots and we will be the idiots. Europe seems to consider us an asylum for her incompetents, defectives, delinquents and criminals.

Norman Hapgood says Grover Bergdoll will return to the United States and take his punishment. Grover says he won't return until he knows what that punishment is to be.

Now, honestly, isn't it time this Bergdoll person were allowed to sink into the obscurity in which he rightly belongs? He was wealthy. He evaded the draft. He skipped the country. Germany does not want him. Do we?

Let Germany ship him to Timbuctoo, to Tibet, to Tahiti, to Heligoland, what do we care. Isn't it true that the one place where he is not wanted is the United States?

Advertising Must Produce Sale

"The department store advertiser does not figure results on the number of curious ones who may crowd his stores after a page ad has been run in the newspapers, but on the cash or actual sales made. This is a fair example of the value of inquiry. Some of the people coming in to this particular store for this special sale will make purchases of considerable size; others will make very ordinary purchases; some will not even buy a paper of pins. We have the comparison here in people that write for a petty booklet or some other literature; some of them may eventually come to Bakersfield or San Francisco or some other community, but the majority of them—and it has been proven so—are not the buyers of railroad tickets.

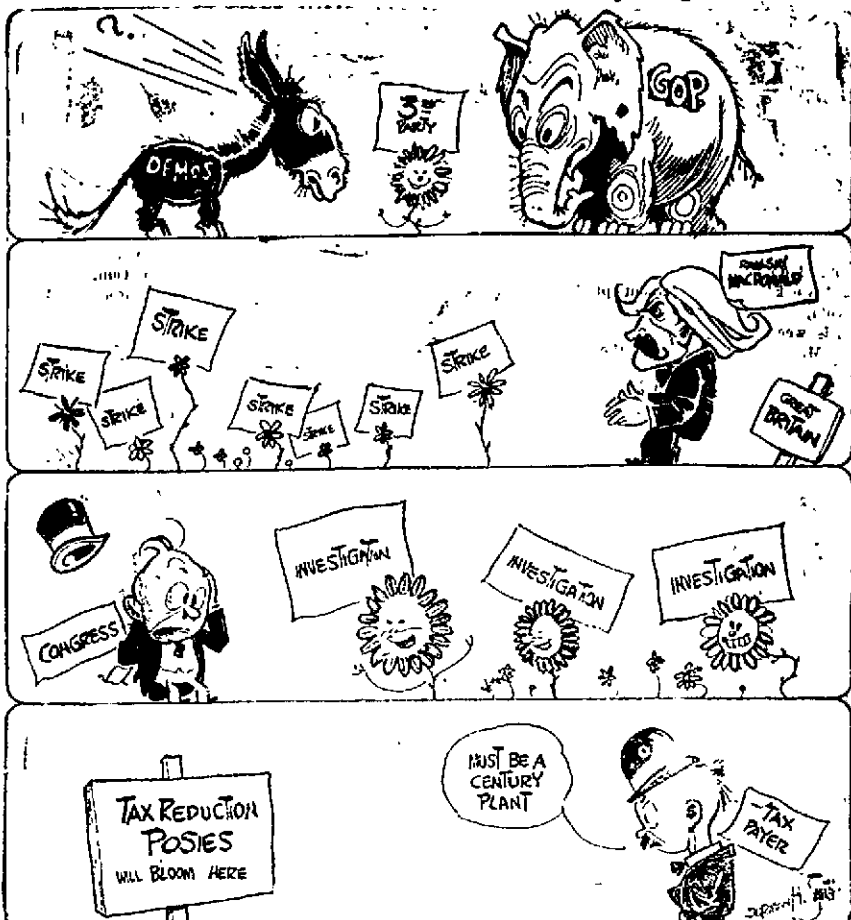

"Your use of the newspaper should be with the purpose of creating actual sales, not inquiries."—Thomas L. Emory, Pacific Coast Manager, A. N. P. A. Bureau of Advertising.

By Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 11—THE CURLY BLACK PUPPY

"You can't do this," declared the monkey.

One day Miss Pithers, the yarn lady in Dootum Land, was milking her cow, called the cow that turned its head.

And while she was sitting there on her little stool, along came a curly black puppy that went not only yip, yip, but nip, nip, and catching an ear on one of her strings in his teeth, he pulled and pulled until half of her skirt was unraveled!

At that Miss Pithers stopped milking and tumbled and the cow turned its head and saw the black curly puppy and went "moo" at him and scared him away.

The puppy dog went yip yip and hopped on and nearly, but not quite, forgot the whole business.

Pretty soon he met the patent leather cat strolling along and importantly stroking his whiskers.

"Yip, yip," barked the pup trying to attract attention.

"Get out of my way, sir," ordered the cat. "Children should be seen and not heard!"

The black puppy stopped yipping at such an insult. "Humph!" he barked. "Children indeed! Why all you can eat is weenies twenty miles, and I just finished eating half the yarn lady. I'm a wild beast, I am."

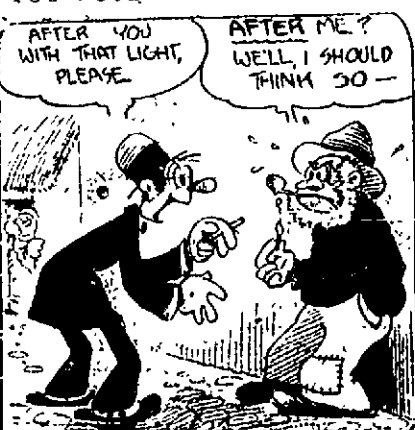

"Well, well!" cried the cat with more respect in his voice. "You didn't look that savage. Half a yarn lady, indeed. Personally I haven't cared for yarn since I was a kitten Good-day, sir."

The curly black puppy looked after him and went "Yip, yip! That fetches him. I guess he found that I amounted to something after all."

And he hopped on.

Pretty soon he met the canton

Spring in Old Kentucky

I hear folks say how de winter done gone,
But 'tween me and you,
Las' week folks talk about plantin' co'n,
Dis week is snow,
My mammy she drag out de flannels some more,
En up comes de warni sun in de door.

I hear folks say, "All de birds come back,
De springtime's near."
In a few mo days it sho seem lak de summer is here!
Den de col' wave come en de birds all fly,
En yo' back-bone hinch when de wind howls by.

One day is de peach-tree filled wid bloom,
Smart ez kin be;
Den down come de sleet, en dar it loom,
A Chris'mas tree;
En de ice shines out lak a shinin' star
What ol' Santy Claus done hang up dar.

Last year, when de co'n was mos' knee high,
Dat col' wave come;
En de win' it whistle, en howl, en cry,
En moan en hum
En de lasses frez in de ol' brown jug;
En nex' day I hatched me a junny bug.

I asked my mammy what's all dis here
De whi' folks say;
De seasons dey bleege for ter come each year,
In de same way?
My mammy des laff, "Go long," sez she,
"Das de way it do in Old Kentucky."

"De fust day dis, en de nex' day dat,
Rough winds en sweet,
A sizzlin' heat, den de snow, a spat,
Cold rain, en sleet,
Den de hills all crack up dey heels en sing,
Das de way, in Old Kentucky, comes spring."

Miss Miriam Williams' Engagement Announced
Announcement of the engagement of Miss Miriam Williams to Wainwright Foley of Pineville was made today at a luncheon given by Miss Williams' aunt, Mrs. J. S. Victor. The luncheon, given at Mrs. Victor's home, was a lovely affair. The long mahogany table set with lace mats, was beautifully decorated in yellow. Crystal candlesticks held yellow candles and a large bowl of yellow jonquils served as the centerpiece. The place cards, in yellow, each carrying a little envelope in which was the announcement of the engagement. The date of the wedding.

some time this spring, has not been made public. Guests at the luncheon were: Mrs. Paul Nuckols and Miss Mary Foley of Pineville, Misses Jess and Earl Buchanan, Martha Morrow, Martha Mitchell, Margaret Cooper, Ma Belle Nelson, Henrietta Gordon, Frances Fitzpatrick, Mildred Kerr, Rosetta Wood, Virginia Reeves, Elizabeth Hurst, Res. Marion and Margaret Jameson and Mrs. W. S. Williams.

Weekly Dance At Booneway Tonight

Ruth Brown Has Birthday Party

Little Miss Ruth Brown entertained this afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Brown, in honor of her tenth birthday. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out. Favors were surprise packages done up in pink. Pink and white ice cream was served when the big white cake, carrying ten pink candles, was cut. The guests were: Jane Hambright, Mildred Pridemore, Betsy Veal, George Day, Elizabeth Smith, Betty Hutcheson, June McKinney, Odessa Rabe, Winona McCamp, Murrell Hubbard, Marjorie Smith, St. Lawrence Bales, Mary Slemph, Virginia Brown, Lillian Smith, Jean Dudley Brown, Marie Hawkins and Anita Reed Hawkins.

Woman's Auxiliary Meets Monday

The Woman's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church will hold its first meeting of the year at the church at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon. This promises to be a very interesting meeting and all members are urged to be present. The meeting will be in charge of the new president, Mr. F. D. Hart, Jr., a will the executive board meeting to be held at 2:30 o'clock, preceding the auxiliary meeting. Two delegates to pre-sbyterial will be elected by the auxiliary members Monday afternoon and several important matters will be taken up. Plans will be made, too, for the supper which the circle leaders and the committee on social activity will give the business.

About Sam
Works of the law are what we do to recommend ourselves to God.

A natural man is one who has not accepted the law of God.

The Bible speaks of man in three states—sinful, separated and redeemed.

Whether you commit one sin or ten thousand sins, it makes no difference
as far as guilt is concerned.

God's word has not a shadow of uncertainty and it speaks plainly of Love for lost sinners will compel one.

sin.
One who does a sinners.

There is just one sin you must commit in order to spend eternity in hell and that is to reject the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you are not sure your name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life it is time you were finding out.

About Soul Winners
Keep self in the back ground.

We do not win souls to Christ because we don't care if they go to hell
as far as guilt is concerned.

It takes courage to win souls to Christ.

Love for lost sinners will compel one.
